

Julie Hocker of LadyHawk Designs is coming to The Quilted Cactus!

On May 13th only from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Julie will be making a special appearance at the shop to teach her most popular class--"TextureScapes."

In this six hour class you'll learn the basics of free motion quilting (no experience necessary), and several other techniques that will enable you to create dozens of unique embellishments. You'll be amazed by how life-like your plants and animals will look with the methods she teaches you. In addition, you will also learn several uses for bobbin work and easy methods of couching fibers.

This is one class that you won't want to miss. Be sure to stop in and reserve your seat today!
