

Dear Fabric Lover,

Now that May is upon us Mother's Day is quickly approaching. We know that sometimes finding the perfect gift for Mom can be a difficult task. So, let's put our heads together and I bet we can find something she is sure to love. Whether it's a new book she has had her eye on, a class that you could take together or a fancy new gadget--we can help! Not sure what she would like, no problem. We offer gift certificates that she could use to get what she has secretly had her eye on.

If you are a mom yourself, don't worry we have you covered too. Just point your significant other our way and we'll do the rest.
